

Declaration

We are the participants of the project "Moving the world with young people. International Youth Meeting" that takes place in Krosno, held on 19 - 24 August 2014. declare a desire for further continuation of this meetings, which was initiated in 2011 in the Moroccan Town of Dakhla.

Realizing the great value are young people and their vision of the world, we believe that this project must still be continued, developed and supported by our local governments. Next, the conference, which will be the fifth in turn will help to analyze the results and summarize the experience of all partners with proposals for the future.

We put the parent requested that a joint work that engages young generations and adults continue further under the banner of free and safe world.

United in diversity we will work together to keep our freedom, peace and justice. Global integration is in the interest of all nations, which is why we must strive to on a common, secure world.

From the heart, mind, and full awareness that in our hands lies the future of joint signing this declaration.
